

ETHICS IN HEALTH SERVICES: EXPERIENCE IN BANGLADESH-

Md. Shafiqur Rahman

Officer on Special Duty
(Ministry of Health & Family Welfare)
Department of Medical Sociology
Institute of Epidemiology Disease Control and Research (IEDCR)
Bangladesh.

Rukhsana Shaheen

Officer on Special Duty
(Ministry of Health & Family Welfare)
Department of Medical Sociology
Institute of Epidemiology Disease Control and Research (IEDCR)
Bangladesh.

Abstract

Some set written and unwritten codes of ethics that exert social control in private and public sector health services of Bangladesh as experienced by the authors have been narrated in this article. Authors consider that greater consideration to ethical issues should be borne in mind by health professionals and their associates. Further, that all adults working in any sphere of life cross-culturally should pause a while to consider whether the job they are going to undertake is ethical or not.